

November 24th, 2018

To Whom It May Concern:

I am honored to write a letter of recommendation for Isaiah Quigley. I worked with Isaiah during the Fall 2018 semester, for his EDUC 475/476/477 student teaching. Isaiah is an excellent candidate to serve as a teacher.

For Isaiah's student teaching requirements, the School of Education assigned Isaiah to a kindergarten placement. Isaiah had to complete rigorous coursework and perform well in student teaching. He did a wonderful job with all of the requirements. I observed his teaching abilities in the demanding placement. Isaiah provided high quality instruction in demonstrating his knowledge of the subject matter. In his teaching setting, Isaiah desired to help students succeed in their academic and personal goals. His many strengths included collaborating with colleagues, facilitating classroom discussions, planning useful lessons, and providing effective classroom management. I appreciated Isaiah's respect for deadlines and technical requirements. In addition, he also earned high praise and high reviews from his host teacher.

Based on my observations, Isaiah is capable of performing educational tasks with excellent proficiency. I expect that Isaiah will be very successful in his endeavors to educate his future students. If you have additional questions, please feel free to email me.

Sincerely,

L. Daniele Bradshaw, Ph.D.

Liberty University School of Education

LDBRADSHAW3@LIBERTY.EDU

(434) 592-6296